BATES- PETTEY LETTERS

1031 W.Walnut St.
Blytheville, Arkansas
March 25,1928

Dear Miss Jones,

. . . . My mother died when I was born and I was reared away from my father and two older sisters. The old family bible and nearly all papers were destroyed during the Civil war. The aunt who reared me died when I was twelve, but she said Thomas Fleming Bates of Belmont, Virginia was one ancestor on my mother's side and he married Caroline Matilda Woodson, a descendant of Dr. John Woodson, who came to America in the Ship George. I have~~x~~ the Revolutionary record of Thomas Fleming Bates, at leasy he was with the Continental Army when Cornwallis surrendered. He and Caroline had twelve children, all born at their country home, "Belmont" and one of his sons was Fleming, or Thomas Fleming, I think. Carolina Matilda Woodson was born October 17,1751 in Henrico County, Virginia, married August 8,1771 Thomas Fleming Bates, who was born in York County, Virginia in 1742. One of their sons, Fleming Bates died about 1830, but I do not know when he was born or whether he was my great grandmother Bates' father or grandfather. I, Mary Lee Gunter Robinson, was born February 13,1888 and am the daughter of Ella Pettey (born June,1854) and J.E.Gunter. They were married May,1872 in Tipton County, Tennessee. Ella Pettey was the daughter of Dr. Francis Marion Pettey and Sarah Elliott, who were married at or near Rossville, Tennessee. Dr. Pettey was the son of George Pettey, who married Nancy Bates, daughter of Fleming Bates, at or near Huntsville, Alabama in 1826 or 1827. She had a sister, Elizabeth, who married a McClain and some of their descendants should be still living there.

Nancy Bates first married George Pettey about 1826 and had two children, Dr. F.M.Pettey and Caroline Pettey. Then she married McKnight Hogg and they had four children, John, Byron, Tom and Ann.

The James Woodson Bates of Arkansas Territory must have been Fleming's father. Nancy Bates'brothers and sisters were:

James K.Bates, who settled in Memphis

Martin Bates who settled in Corsicana, Tex.

Matilda Bates who married Bill Paulding and lived in ~~Mem~~ Memphis, Tenn.

Catherine Bates who married Wash. Crawford and lived in Marshall Co. Miss.

Lucinda Bates ( a cripple)

All are dead long ago.

Some family names of this period were: Kilgore, Benson, Mickle and Fleming. Each generation seems to have been partial to the names of Thomas, Bates and Fleming, also Judith, Caroline and Matilda.

Dr. Francis Marion Pettey, son of George and Nancy (Bates) Pettey was born October 29,1827 at Athens, Alabama. He married Sarah Elliott near Rossville, Tennessee about 1848.

I do not know whether our family is connected with the Branch family or not, but there were Randolphs, Brockmans and Ferris' in the Virginia connection. My father's people, the Gunters intermarried with the Trice family and those above mentioned all lived in Louisa County, Virginia and were prominent in affairs of their day. The Petteys may have come from North Carolina originally. The first I know of the family, they were living around Huntsville, Ala.

Quoting from a letter from Dr. Paul Pettey, Athens, Ala. "George Pettey of Limestone County, Alabama was the father of William, Frank, Abner, Joseph Mickle and George Pettey (who married Nancy Bates) and daughters: Charlotte, Jane and one who married Stamps and lived in Arkansas. The elder George Pettey remained in Limestone County, Alabama with his son, Joseph Mickle Pettey and died at the old homestead. His three sons, William, Abner and George moved to Arkansas and settled at Searcy with quite a colony of Immigrants from Alabama and together with the Critz and Keys families made up a large settlement. Then the Civil War came on and the family home near Athens, Alabama was burned. Three Pettey brothers were in the Revolutionary war, two died of small pox and one survived."

Mary Lee Gunter Robinson
